

Merchants' Quay, and remained submerged for nearly an hour.

William O'Connell, Shanagolden, Co. Limerick, also a creamery manager, identified one of the bodies as that of his brother, Daniel O'Connell, who, said witness, was aged 47, married, and father of four children.

Maurice S. Power, proprietor, Railway Hotel, Limerick City, said that the other decease, Mr. John Joseph Power, was his brother, was aged 44, married, and had seven children.

Dr. Victor, Dillon, House Surgeon, North Infirmary attributed death in both cases to asphyxia, caused by drowning.

Applying for an adjournment, Superintendent Brady said that a number of things would have to be gone into, chiefly what caused the car to go in at that place, and was there anything to stop it.

The Coroner—That is a matter for further inquiry.

Inspector—Then I ask you to adjourn the inquest for a few days.

The Coroner, after consultation with the jury foreman, fixed next Thursday at 3.30 p.m. for the resumption.

---

OBSEQUIES OF REV. P. V. HIGGINS, P.P., BULGADEN.

The obsequies took place at Bulgaden Church on Sunday of the Rev. P. V. Higgins, P.P. Sixty priests were present, all parts of the diocese being represented. There was also a very large attendance of laymen, many coming from the most remote points of County Limerick, while others attended from County Cork. It was a remarkable tribute to the respect and affection entertained for the deceased clergyman. Very Rev. Canon Mulcahy, P.P., V.F., Kilmallock, presided, and also officiated at the interment, which was in the church grounds.

day of the week other than Christmas Eve, and not later than 10 o'clock p.m., on Saturdays and Christmas Eve which is not a day of public business.

Provided that nothing in this Order shall prohibit sales after the Hours of Medicines and Medical Appliances urgently needed.

Any person wishing to make application to the Order or suggestions in accordance with the provisions of the Order should send a statement in writing to the Council before the 5th January next.

Notice is further given that the attention of the Council to make application to the Minister for Industry and Commerce to revoke the Closing Order in respect of said shops by the Council of Limerick on the 5th January 1918.

And Notice is further given that the occupier of any shop to be affected by this Order may, on presenting his application to the Council's Offices between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. on any week day, and between the hours of 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. on Saturday, state the name, address and trade of the shop, and enter the same in the Register of Shops.

Dated this 4th day of December 1917.
T. C. O'MAHON
City Manager and Town Clerk

---

Z. M. LEDGER & SON—F
Gifts. Why not give Books, Stationery, Travel, and Fiction. Children's Books in stock. Sold and exchanged. Note O'Connell Street.

Z. M. LEDGER & SON—H our wonderful range of Ladies' Hand Bags to suit every pocket? Prices to suit every pocket? Pu and Ladies' Hand Bags prices. A visit will repay you. Note O'Connell Street.

---

McCARTHY