

Miss H. Ryan, sister, was bridesmaid, and Mr T. Spencer acted as best man.

The bridegroom, who was one of the original members of the I.R.A. in Limerick, has been a member of the Corporation since 1920, and was elected to the Dail in the Cumanna na nGaedheal interest at the General Election in 1932. The bride is a daughter of Mrs Ryan and the late Mr P. Ryan, Lacken, Newport, who was prominently associated with the I.R.A.

After the ceremony the bridal party motored to Thurles, where they had breakfast at Hayes' Hotel.

Later in the day the happy couple left for their honeymoon in England.

DEATH OF MR J. J. FOLEY.

The death, which we announce with regret, took place at his home, Belfield, Ennis Road, on Sunday night, of Mr John J. Foley, a well-known and respected citizen. The deceased had been in indifferent health for a couple of years and the end came peacefully. Mr Foley carried on the business of forage contractor at Wickham street, and was for a number of years extensively engaged in horse dealing. During the war he purchased for the British Government and the Allies, and held a high reputation as a judge of horses. He also raced in this country, and his colours were frequently carried to victory. Mr Foley was a man who enjoyed the respect and affection of a wide circle of friends, who will extend sincere sympathy to his family in their loss.

FORTHCOMING CIVIC CEREMONY.

Mr Dermod O'Brien, President of the Royal Hibernian Academy, will receive the Freedom of the City at a special meeting of the Corporation on the 27th inst. The honour is being conferred on Mr O'Brien in recognition of his great services to the art of painting, and of his generous gift to the city of a portrait of Michael Hogan, Bard of Thomond. After the ceremony the Bard of Thomond Memorial Committee will entertain the FUNERAL OF MR. T. QUINLIVAN.

The popularity enjoyed by the late Mr Thomas Quinlivan, Lansdowne Park, tailoring cutter at Messrs Cannock & Co., Ltd., was manifested at his funeral which took place from St Munchin's Church on Sunday to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. It was of extremely large proportions, and representative of every interest in the city. Members of the Corporation, Chamber of Commerce, Harbour Board, and Trades and Labour bodies walked in the procession, in addition to the professional classes and Rugby and Rowing Clubs. It was a striking tribute to the memory of one who was held in the highest respect in the city, and showed the sympathy felt for his widow and the members of his family in their bereavement.

The chief mourners were—Mrs T. Quinlivan (widow); Joe, James, John, William, and Anthony Quinlivan (brothers); Mrs G. Benson and Mrs P. Mulrooney (sisters); John and Joe Benson and Robert and Jack Mulrooney nephews; Misses Bridget and Ciss Quinlivan (nieces); Anthony and Thomas Donovan (uncles); Miss M. Quinlivan and Mrs T. O'Donnell (aunts); John, Gerard, and Hugh Benson, Hugh O'Donnell, Jim, Jack, and Anthony Mulcahy, and Mrs T. Collins Clonmel, (cousins); George Benson and P. Mulrooney (brothers-in-law); Miss Ciss Dunoyer, and Dolly Keane, Mrs A. White, and Mr; Humphries Dublin, K. Halpin, and R. Barret (relatives).

The clergy present were—Very Rev. Canon O'Dwyer, P.P., V.F., St. Munchin's; Rev Fr. Mortell, C.C., do.; Rev. Fr. McCarthy, C.C., do; Rev. Fr. Ccstelloe, C.C., St. Mary's, and Rev. Fr. Dillon Kelly, S.J.

A large number of floral tributes were laid on the grave, at which Canon O'Dwyer officiated.

L.P.Y.M.A. MALE VOICE CHOIR.