

the Minister for Local Government and Public Health if he would state when he would sanction the superannuation awarded to certain officials of the Limerick Corporation by the City Manager.

Mr. S. T. O'Kelly replied that eleven pensions had already been sanctioned. Owing to the difficulty of procuring accurate information from the records in Limerick some time elapsed before definite proposals could be made, but to obviate hardship, interim payments were authorised last January. This arrangement would come to an end on September 30. Before that date all the remaining cases would, he hoped, be disposed of
