approached the man whom they took from a crowd which had gathered around the seat where he was kneeling. Previous to this a young man had attempted to force the interruptor from his seat, and both had fallen to the ground. The inter-ruptor was taken to the sacristy by the priests who appealed to the crowd to leave quietly—an appeal which was ac-

LATE MRS. M. HOBBS.

The interment of Mrs. Mary Hobbs, 7 Crescent Avenue, Limerick, relict of Inspector Thos. Hobbs, R.I.C., Cahirci-veen, took place yesterday morning after Requiem Mass at 10.30, to Mount St.
Laurence Cemetery.

The deceased lady, who belonged to an old Limerick family, died on Saturday, after an illness of some duration. She was the possessor of a kindly and charitable disposition, and deep sympathy will be extended to her family in their bereavement.

Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rev. T. Hobbs, C.C., (son), who also officiated at the graveside.

The other clergy present were Rev. M.
Fitzpatrick, C.C., St. Michael's; Rev. J.
Cowper, D.D., C.C., do.; Rev. C. Moriarty, C.C., do.

The chief mourners were—Rev. T.
Hobbs, P.P., J. J. Hobbs, and A. Hob-bins (sons); Mrs. Adam and Miss Hob-bins (daughters), Messrs. David and Thomas Adams, Ambrose and Joseph Hobbs (grandsons).

A number of Mass Cards were sent by sympathisers.
