

e perched under a Swastika viously at a colonial land-ears the legend: "Germany, s."

books on the colonial probing published. Cinemas dis-avel films of former German v under British and other he high-spot of the autumn nes on October 16, when the onial Congress ever held in opening in Breslau for three st autumn army manoeuvres in post-war Germany began e-militarised Rhineland zone.

They were watched by Herr hal von Blomberg (Minister en. Goering, General Fritsch, al Raeder (Commander-in-the Navy). The absence of is the principal feature of s. Real tanks and swarms of are taking part.

SERIOUS AFFAIR.

o Men in Car.

re investigating a mysterious on Sunday evening, when forcibly removed two young Fairview, Dublin, in a motor er driving them for miles into finally released them, leavo make their way home as ould.

s that shortly before 7 p.m. the little boys, both aged ears, were sitting on a seat at Park, when a motor car, dea bluish-coloured saloon, drove got out and catching one of egan to drag him towards the oy resisted valiantly, and his crying for help, began to run another man appeared from car, caught him by the wrist him into it.

oy was thrown in immedia-ards, and the car was driven speed. The men drove on for e, while the boys kept strugglof them eventually kicked the seat where he was kneeling. Previous to this a young man had attempted to force the interruptor from his seat, and both had fallen to the ground. The inter-ruptor was taken to the sacristy by the priests who appealed to the crowd to leave quietly—an appeal which was acceded to immediately.

LATE MRS. M. HOBBS.

The interment of Mrs. Mary Hobbs, 17 Crescent Avenue, Limerick, relict of Inspector Thos. Hobbs, R.I.C., Cahirci-veen, took place Monday morning after Requiem Mass at 10.30, to Mount St.
Laurence Cemetery.

The deceased lady, who belonged to an old Limerick family, died on Saturday, after an illness of some duration. She was the possessor of a kindly and charitable disposition, and deep sympathy will be extended to her family in their bereavement.

Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rev. T. Hobbs, C.C., (son), who also officiated at the graveside.

The other clergy present were Rev. M.
Fitzpatrick, C.C., St. Michael's; Rev. J.
Cowper, D.D., C.C., do.; Rev. C. Moriarty, C.C., do.

The chief mourners were—Rev. T.
Hobbs, P.P., J. J. Hobbs, and A. Hob-bins (sons); Mrs. Adam and Miss Hob-bins (daughters), Messrs. David and Thomas Adams, Arabrose and Joseph Hobbs (grandsons).

A number of Mass Cards were sent by sympathisers.

BELFAST RIOTS BILL.

Meeting at Stormont Arranged.

The Belfast Corporation intends to make a further effort to induce the Government of Northern Ireland to accept responsibility for the whole or a substantial portion of the £35,000 malicious injury claim awards arising out of the dis-that sum for re-have no grievance County Surveyor

ised the Cork some such equibeen exception matter of Govt Council very v anything to do may have ser-schemes. The
the repair of th estimated to co of which is to b three years on Department. vision of a good that period, and the rates will £22,800 of the will be in the unlike what hap Corporation, wh equivalent of a ing schemes. W carried through in a thorough s
to the best stan other county.
it should be, fo share of the tot good roads—th vided. Visitin ally, give a roads, and it is of our County
there is no lo of road making of directing th from this coun offer the visit apart from its sport—hunting

7,000 PILG AT

Reference to made by his Ex
when address