

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR McKNIGHT.

Deep regret was manifested in Limerick on Wed., when the funeral of Mr. Michl. McKnight, who died on board the liner Manhattan, en route for New York, with the Limerick team on the 11th inst., took place to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

The cortege left Stonehall Parish Church for Limerick, after Office and Requiem Mass. It was of very large proportions, and was joined along the route by numbers of sympathisers, including numbers of Gaels from the city and county. At the borough boundary the cortege was met by a big body of citizens, which included the Mayor (Mr James Casey).

The chief mourners were—Mrs McKnight (widow), Miss McKnight (daughter), Mrs O'Donnell and Mrs McDonagh (sisters), Mr J. O'Donnell and Mr T. McDonagh (brothers-in-law); Messrs. Basil, James, Cecil, Joseph, and Patrick McDonagh (cousins).

Right Rev. Monsignor O'Donnell, P.P.,

V.G., Rathkeale, presided at the Office and Requiem Mass at Stonehall Parish Church yesterday morning, the celebrant being Rev. Fr. Kennedy, Chinese Mission, who is a relative of the deceased. The other clergy present were—Very Rev. Canon Connolly, P.P., V.F., Newcastle West; Very Rev. Canon Mangan, Kildimo; Rev. Fr. Fitzgerald, P.P., Stonehall; Rev. Fr. Barry, P.P., Cappa; Rev. Fr. Wall, P.P., Ballingarry; Rev. Fr. Punch, P.P., Mungret; Rev. Fr. Quinlan, C.C., Monegea; Rev. Fr. McCarthy, C.C., Effin; Rev. Fr. Brazil, C.C., St. John's, and Rev. Fr. Costelloe, Diocesan Inspector.

Rev. Fr. Kennedy officiated at the grave, on which a number of wreaths were placed.

CONDOLENCE.

At the meeting of the Limerick Corporation on Tuesday night, the Mayor (Mr. J. M. Casey) proposed votes of sympathy to Ald. J. McInerney on the death of his father-in-law; to Mrs. Ryan on the death of her son, Mr. James Ryan; to Mr. C. O'Flynn on the death of his father, and to Mr. C. Moloney on the death of his mother.
