

Mr P. T. Conlan, Assistant Town Clerk. The list contains about 22,000 voters, which is an increase of 1,000 compared with the old register.

SUDDEN DEATH.

James Moloney, a carpenter, aged seventy years, died suddenly at his lodgings in Corbally last night. He retired to bed rather early, and sometime later when the proprietress of the house went to his room with a drink she found him dead. The facts having been communicated to the City Coroner he did not consider an inquest necessary.

MUNITIONS FACTORY.

Experts from the Government recently visited Kilkishen, Co. Clare, ten miles from Limerick, for the purpose of selecting a site for the erection of a munitions factory. As far as can be gathered, the site chosen is on the Studdert estate, and there is reason to believe that the building of the factory in this place has been definitely decided upon.

LIMERICK CREAMERY'S SUCCESS.

At the recent Balmoral Show, Belfast, the championship prizes and gold medal for the best exhibit of butter were won by Garryspillane Co-operative Creamery, Knocklong, which also won the Challenge Cup for the best exhibit of not less than 56lbs.

LIMERICK NUN'S DEATH.

The death has taken place at the Convent of Mercy, Abbeyfeale, County Limerick, of Rev. Mother Peter Lyons, who had been ill for some weeks. Mother Peter, who was 76 years of age, was a daughter of the late Mr D. P. Lyons, merchant, The Square, Abbeyfeale.
