

The Manager said that the matter would probably come before the Council again at some distant date.

The matter was not further discussed.

---

DEATH OF MR C. O'SULLIVAN.

---

We announce with regret the death of Mr Christopher O'Sullivan, Editor and proprietor of the "Limerick Echo," which occurred at his residence, Sarsfield street, Limerick, yesterday morning, after a short illness.

Mr O'Sullivan began his journalistic career in the "Munster News," and during the stormy period of the land war and the operation of the Coercion Act his duties as a reporter brought him into many parts of the country. He often recalled the stirring days, and particularly to scenes associated with the Bodyke evictions.

For a brief period Mr O'Sullivan was Editor of the "Limerick Leader," before he founded the "Limerick Echo" in May, 1897. He acted as correspondent of the "Irish Independent" from the date of the establishment of that paper by the Parnellite Party, and took a prominent part in the Fenian amnesty movement.

With every branch of journalism the deceased was conversant. He was a versatile and engaging writer and an expert shorthand note taker. Apart and outside of everything, Mr O'Sullivan possessed a rare faculty for making friends. He was an interesting companion with a cheery and bright outlook, and considerate and tolerant for the views of those who differed with him in national and political affairs.

His death removes one from the arena of Irish journalism, who was respected and esteemed for his many fine attributes, and in his native city his passing will be learned with deep sorrow, not alone by his colleagues but by a wide circle of friends.

Remains will be removed this (Saturday) evening at 8 o'clock. Funeral to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery at 3 o'clock to-morrow from St. Michael's Church.

and Co., Shannon street, city, cited for using plates on a without an entry being made in the official book used for the purpose. Mr A. Blood-Smyth, solr., defence, said the omission was an oversight.

The First Offenders Act was pleaded by the owner, and the driver was Michael Blood-Smyth.

For an assault on Michael Blood-Smyth, John street, Thomas Quilligan, 20s.

It was stated that defendant O'Connor following a dispute with the members of his family.

---

Embezzlement Charge

---

At Circuit Court

Judge McElligott concluded the reading of County indictments at Circuit Court yesterday.

Peter Bluett, Brickfield, Killarney, was indicted and pleaded, guilty to counts to embezzling £10, the Limerick Co. Council while in the office of that body as rate collector.

In view of this plea the State Solicitor-General entered a nolle prosequere in other similar counts in the indictment. The total amount involved was £117.

Mr C. Kenny, B.L., for the accused, urged clemency in view of the character of the accused, and the fact that he served in the Army. He had for his services a pension of £100 a year.

Accused was sentenced to three months imprisonment without hard labour.

James Doyle, Killorglin, was indicted and pleaded not guilty with fraud to obtaining by means of a worthless cheque £30 from the Provincial Bank, Limerick West, on the 4th May, 1935.

Evidence in support of the charge was given by the manager of the bank, Newcastle West, and by the manager of the bank, Tralee to the effect that the account had been overdrawn at the time.

The defence was that there was no intention to defraud.

The accused was found guilty and given a suspensory sentence of six months imprisonment provided he refunded the money.

---