
JAIL FOR STEALING EGGS.

Hard Labour Sentence.

At Limerick Circuit Court to-day, Ed. Doherty, who, at the last Sessions, pleaded guilty to the larceny from the Kantoher Stores, Newcastle West, of a quantity of eggs to the value of £20, came up for judgment.

The case was adjourned to give the accused an opportunity of repaying the amount involved. Nothing, however, had been paid since, and no endeavour was made to do so.

He was sentenced to four months' imprisonment.

OBSEQUIES OF A NUN.

The interment took place to-day in St. Mary's Convent Cemetery of Sister Mary Nolasco McMahon. She was over 80 years of age, and was a native of Bulgaden, Kilmallock. Recently she celebrated the diamond jubilee of her profession. The Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. Keane, presided at the Requiem Mass, of which Rev. Fr. McCarthy, C.C., St. Mary's, was celebrant; deacon, Rev. Fr. Creed, St. Patrick's; sub-deacon, Rev. Fr. Costelloe, C.C., St. Mary's master of ceremonies, Rev. Fr. Brassill, C.C., St. John's

RATHKEALE RATES.

Limerick Health Board, at a meeting yesterday, adopted a rate of 1s. 5½d in the £—3½d. on land and 1s. 2d. on buildings—for Rathkeale area.

Mr D. J. Madden, who moved the adoption of the estimate and rate, criticised the lighting charges of the