

Murdered Mayor's Father Dies.

---

Old Fenian Passes Away

The death has occurred of Mr John Clancy, of Grange, Loughgar, Co. Limerick, aged 88 years.

He was father of the late Mr Seamus Clancy who was murdered by the Breen and crew when he was Mayor of Limerick in 1891. Another of his sons, Mr Patrick Clancy, was T.D. for Limerick for a number of years, and of Mr "Egan" Clancy, a famous hurler, who died in America.

Deceased was an old Fenian all his life-time, a thoroughly upright and broad-minded man.