

Col. Clare Exiles's Death

Rev Father O'Dea, of Limerick, late P.P. of Gere, New Zealand, has received notification of the death of Miss Mary Macnamara at the Nelson Hospital, Wellington. Deceased, a native of Lisycasey, Co. Clare, emigrated to New Zealand many years ago. She was a sister of the late Mr M. A. Macnamara, B.L. who was a well-known authority on Irish language, and worked during the last twenty years of his life in the King's Inns Library, Dublin, on manuscripts dealing with the language and Irish place names. The majority of these valuable manuscripts are now stored in the Courthouse, Ennis.
