

Sympathy With Prominent Citizen

A Sad Bereavement

Every citizen in Limerick, without exception, joins with sympathy with Mr A J McCloskey, Manager, Messrs J Laird and Co, O'Connell street, on the death of his beloved wife, Mrs Bridie McCloskey, which sad event took place on Saturday at her residence, Clontarf Place, City.

To all—and they were a wide circle—acquainted with the deceased lady, she was ever a most loveable personality. Kind and charming in manner and disposition, with the most affectionate traits of character, makes her passing away in the prime of life all the more to be sorrowed and mourned after.

The removal of the remains to Saint Michael's Parish Church on Sunday evening marked the esteem in which she had been held, and of the deep sympathy with her popular husband in his affliction. The funeral to Mt. St Lawrence Cemetery on Monday was again a huge one.

We join in the universal sympathy offered to her husband and relatives.
