

Newport Tragedy.

---

Prisoner Gets Six Months in Jail

William Kelly, no fixed abode, who pleaded guilty to a charge of causing grievous bodily harm to his father-in-law, John Dandon, at Tullow, Newport, Co. Tipperary, on 17th Jan. last, was sentenced to six months imprisonment at the Central Criminal Court, Dublin. Dandon had interfered in a dispute between accused and his wife, and accused pushed him. The deceased fell and struck the base of his skull against the ground, and died later. Kelly's sentence is to date from the date from the date of his arrest.