

DEATH OF MR. T. HANRAHAN

It is with very deep regret we chronicle the demise of Mr. Thomas Hanrahan, Alphonse Street, Limerick, which occurred on Mon. very unexpectedly. The deceased was a pilot in the employment of the Limerick Harbour Board for over twenty years and was a brother of Captain T. Hanrahan and Captain J. Hanrahan, both in the service of the Limerick Steamship Company.

The news of Mr. Hanrahan's death will be learned of with the deepest regret and sorrow, and the sympathy of the citizens will go out unstintingly to the widow and family in their irreparable loss.
