

Late Mr C. O'Leary, N.T.

The announcement of the death on Sunday of Mr Cornelius O'Leary, Wellington, New Zealand, was received with feelings of deep regret at Kilmallock, where he had been principal teacher in the National School for many years. In New Zealand he continued the profession of teacher, from which he retired a few years since on pension. He was endowed with culture and scholarly attainments of a high order, with which he combined an affability of manner that endeared him to all his friends.
