

Mungret Fatality Recalled

The Justice's Decision

At Croom Court, before Mr C S Kenny, B.L., the Justice gave his decision in the adjourned case in which Patrick Murphy, 48 St Joseph street, Limerick, was charged at the suit of the Attorney General with the manslaughter of Wm Hartigan in February last by knocking him down with a motor car. The case was adjourned from the previous court at Ballynoisy.

The Justice refused informations against the accused, who was represented by Mr D O'Donovan, solicitor, Limerick.
