Condolences Voted by Public Bodies

The Limerick Corporation, at its meeting on Wednesday night, voted sympathy in respectful silence to the widow and family of the late Mr M. McKnight, who died on board the "ss. Manhattan" (on the motion of Mr P Bourke); with the family of Mr Jack Toomey (on the motion of Mr John Dalton), and with the widow and the family of Mr Tom Babraham, pilot, on the proposition of Mr M. Harney.

Mr P F Quinlan's proposition that the sympathy of the Council be tendered to Lord Montagu, on the death of Lady Montagu, was passed in the same respectful way.

The Limerick Mental Hospital Committee, on the proposition of Mr J Mackey, have also expressed profound regret at the sad passing of Mr McKnight.

From the Limerick Railway Clerks' Association, Mr J W Savage, District Supt. G.B. Railways, has been the recipient of a vote of condolence on the death of his beloved daughter.
