

Death of Mr P Kirby, Holycross

It is with very great regret we chronicle the demise of Mr Patrick Kirby, Holy Cross, Kilmallock, which occurred on Saturday last. The deceased, who was father-in-law of Ald Joseph Moloney, was a very respected and popular man, and his passing away has occasioned widespread regret and sorrow.

The funeral took place on Monday from George's church to the family burial ground and the cortege was of very large proportions.
