
Death of Mrs. Kate Meany

With very sincere regret we announce the death, which occurred at her residence, Despoist, Blackrock, Dublin, of Miss Kate Meany, sister of our popular fellow citizen, Mr Laurence Meany, Droghda. Deceased lady was of a most gentle and unassuming disposition, and was kindly and charitable in all her dealings—in a word, she was Irish to the Irish, kindest of the kind. The funeral, from Blackrock, arrived in the outskirts of the city before 3 o'clock this evening, and was accompanied to their last resting place at Mount St. Laurence Cemetery amidst every manifestation of sympathy and respect.

Death of Limerick Lady

Housekeeper to Marquis of Waterford

The death has occurred of Mrs Mary Moore, who for the past five years has been the esteemed housekeeper at Corraghmore, the Marquis of Waterford's seat in Waterford. Deceased was a native of Limerick.
