Interment To Take Place In Ireland

The death has taken place of Mr James Marcus Sullivan, U.S. Minister Plenipotentiary to San Domingo, at Petersburg, Florida, U.S.A.

Following the 1916 Rising he was a prominent advocate and champion for the recognition of the Irish Republic. He was connected with the O'Mara family, Limerick.

The remains, which will be removed in the ss. Caledonia from New York to Ireland, will be accompanied by his son Stephen and his daughters. The interment will take place at Glascevic.
