

Brave Limerickman's Death Recalled

The death has occurred at Lisfawel, at an advanced age, of ex-Head Constable M. Melvill of the R.L.C., and a native of Newtownsunder.

He was an uncle of Constable P. Sheehan, of the D.M.P., a native of Glin, who lost his life at Bergh Quay, Dublin, in 1906, when he attempted to rescue workmen who had been overcome by illness in a tower.
