

Walked Home

Clare Man's Tragic Fate

Michael O'Brien, 76, of Loughoagros, Killaine, was fatally wounded while out rabbit shooting. As he was crossing the ditch the gun caught in some briars and went off.

Though terribly injured in the abdomen, O'Brien walked to his home and sent a messenger for a priest and a doctor. He died the following day. Accidental death was the verdict at the inquest.
