
Fatal Collapse

Death of Young County Limerick Woman

When Miss Ryan, employed by Mrs O'Brien, publican and draper, Bruff, returned from a walk on Saturday evening she collapsed and was attended by Dr O'Donnell and Fr O'Sullivan. She died subsequently. She was between twenty and twenty five years of age, and a native of Cahercoolish. Her demise is much regretted and sincere sympathy is felt with her relatives.
