

Clare Tragedy

---

Child Kicked To Death By Pony]

On Sunday evening a young boy named John Kelly, aged 2½ years, of Kilmurry McMahon, went with his grandfather to an adjoining field to get a bucket of water. The child, having gone half way, went to return home alone and on the way met a pony, which rushed at the child and kicked him to death.

Great sympathy is felt for the parents, and the sad occurrence has cast a gloom over the district.