

Electrocuted

Sad Fate of E.S.B. Employee

While working on the Shannon Scheme Power Station, Ardacrusha, on Tuesday, Ed. Fahey, aged 25 years, was accidentally electrocuted. It would appear that he came in contact with a high tension cable and was killed instantly. He was a native of Galway and was a married man with four children. The remains were interred in Parteen Cemetery.
