

Meelick Man Dies In Dublin

Mr Jeremiah J O'Dwyer (64), who has died, was well known in the licensing trade in Dublin where, at 43 Henry street, he carried on business for many years. He was a native of Meelick, county Clare. In his early days he was prominent in athletic circles and won many prizes. He leaves five sons and two daughters.

The remains were removed to the Pro-Cathedral.

The chief mourners were:— Messrs John, Mathew, Martin, Jeremiah and Thomas O'Dwyer (sons); Misses Bridget and Eileen O'Dwyer (daughters); Mrs J Carrow (sister); Rev J Austin, O C (brother-in-law); Mrs R Austin (sister-in-law); James Bourke and J Carrow (nephews); Misses Kathleen and Bridget Austin (nieces); Mrs J Quinn, Mrs T Wyer, Mr Misses Wynn, P Bourke, E J Ryan, T Bourke, D Ryan, M Ryan, M Quinn, J O'Dwyer, Mrs M O'Dwyer, and Miss O'Dwyer (cousins).