

Popular Citizen

---

Sudden Death of Mr. James Ward

His numerous friends in the city will regret the death of Mr James Ward, Windmill street, which occurred at his residence shortly after a seizure on Monday. The deceased had recently been receiving medical attention, but his death was altogether unexpected. Deceased, who was aged about 68 years, ha' retired some few months ago from the income tax department of the Customs and Excise, where he had been a popular official for many years.

---