

Creamery Manager for 42 Years

Death of Mr T. Mullins

Mr Timothy Mullins, who died at the Bon Secours Hospital, Cork, on Saturday was Manager of the Glenwilliam Co-Op. Dairy Society, Ballingarry, co. Limerick, for the past 42 years.

An extensive farmer, he contested the 1913 election as a Farmers' Union candidate.

Condolence.

The Limerick Branch of the Irish Legering and Foundry Union passed the following vote of sympathy:—"That we, the members of the above Union, tender to Miss Fitzmaurice our sincere sympathy on the death of her brother."

The Cappamore Dairy Society have passed a vote of sympathy with Mr Chris. O'Brien, Pallasbeg, a former member of the committee, and his wife and family, on their recent sad bereavement.
