

message states that the good night. progress being made well maintained. in audience to-day personages. walked a little in his few steps round the effects and will re-very day. His Holi-remain longer on his is anxious that he his strength at this day, (Ind. Lab, Cork) for Industry and his intention to in- legislation to com- for loss of wages in- civil war period of when? ed—I would refer eply of the 27th No- similar question by Corish.

RECALLED.

RESEARCH.

ng medical research e State were discus- ting of the recently- al Research Council

o issue a statement

Chairman, presided, tically a full attend-

ENGAGEMENT.

announced between oodbody, only son of n Goodbody, of Tim- , formerly of West- and Miss Cynthia ughter of the late n, D.S.O., Seaforth Mrs. R. W. Ryan, of l road, London.

expenditure incurred by the fire brigade in attending fires outside the borough would be recouped the Fire Brigade had been instructed to ignore such calls.

Mr. O'Mahony also said that he had communicated with the Board of Health on the matter and had pointed out the serious position that would arise if a fire occurred in one of the country towns. So far the Board of Health had come to no decision on the subject.

DEATH OF MR. M. A. BARTLEY

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Michael A. Bartley, which took place at his residence, in Mulgrave Street to-day. Mr. Bartley had reached an advanced age. He was for over 30 years a member of the staff of Messrs. A. Guinness & Sons, Ltd., Limerick, and had been enjoying superannuation for the last quarter of a century. He was a well-known and popular figure in the life of Limerick for many years. He was father of Dr. James Bartley, House Surgeon Co. Infirmary, and of Mr. John Bartley, partner in the firm of Messrs Fitzgerald & Co., William Street.

The remains will be removed to St. John's Cathedral at 8 p.m. this evening, Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. on Friday, and the funeral at 1 p.m. to Mt. St. Laurence Cemetery.

DEATH OF MRS. M. WALSH.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. M. Walsh, of Mary Street, an old and respected figure in the life of the old town, where for a long number of years she carried on the business of milk vendor. The late Mrs. Walsh was for a short time in rather indifferent health, but her demise was entirely unexpected, and has occasioned profound regret amongst a wide circle of friends. We tender our sympathy to her family in their bereavement. The remains will be removed to St. Mary's Parish Church this evening at 9.30. Funeral arrangements later.

rate of 23s. in the £— on that of last year—w night's meeting of Cor which an amendment a committee of five be if it were not possible t in order to reduce the The committee are to and report their finding tion on Tuesday night.

STILL ANOTHER I

There is a distinct pe ther increase in petrol future. According to one st authoratative source, it next increase will equ total of the two recent were one halfpenny on The rise in petrol pri to increased purchasing vernments interested in programmes.

MORE CARS IN

New Registration Se

An indication of the motor vehicle registrati the fact that a new se been issued for Dublin It replaces the ZA s commenced in 1933, and The new serial is the to Dublin, the others and ZA, in the order was introduced for C year.

JUSTICE'S CL

After passing sentenc imprisonment with hard Lynch of Clonmany, Walsh, at Carndonagh, lowed the man three m his crops. The warrant May 19th. Lynch pleaded guilty poteen distilling appar: tity of wash.