

isit, that, as a result of the Bilbao, Catholic children arved. By that he means plies are being cut off from id his junta of Communists, no qualms about killing uns and burning churches. better if this tender-hearted others like him refrained ning and left the question vention to those best quali- hat the war is not unduly In this country, too, there ho subscribe to the view of our, but they, fortunately, at for much in either the social sphere. The over- ajority of the Irish people strated on which side their ie, and have given abundant

At the meeting of the Committee of Limerick pital this week Very Rev. yer, P.P., V.F., voiced the he people of the Free State the Spanish war when he e hope that the Patriot be triumphant. Any other l be disastrous, not only for Catholicity in Spain, but nity in Western Europe. to the Irish Brigade fighting of Franco will be endorsed e, and may it be hoped that conflict will soon terminate y for the forces of Chris- When that end has been ) will only then know the by the Irish volunteers in our campaign.

On the defendant undertaking to go back to his employer and refund the money, the Justice adjourned the case for three months.

---

DEATH OF MRS. J. CORBOY

---

We regret to announce the death, which took place at her residence, The Crossways, Ennis Road, last evening, of Mrs. Helena Corboy. The deceased lady had not been in robust health for some time past. She was deeply interested in various charitable organisations in Limerick, and was always willing to render valuable help to the great cause of charity.

Deep sympathy will be extended to her husband, Mr. John Corboy, one of Limerick's prominent business men, and to the other members of the family.

The funeral will take place to-morrow (Sunday) at 1 o'clock (old time) to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

---

DEATH OF MISS H. EWART

---

The death took place at the County Infirmary, Limerick, last evening, of Miss Helen Anderson Ewart, after a brief illness. The deceased lady belonged to a well-known Limerick family, and her passing has caused deep and genuine regret. She was a prominent and earnest worker on behalf of the Presbyterian Church, and her efforts as Secretary of the Church Missionary Association were very much appreciated and valued. Her loss will be deplored by all who enjoyed her acquaintance, and sincere sympathy goes out to her bereaved relatives.

---

CARS COLLIDE.

---

Two cars, displaying Cork registration numbers, came into collision in O'Connell Street this afternoon. At the time a continuous stream of cars was proceeding to the Markets Field.

The impact was slight, and none of the occupants of the vehicles were injured.

One of the cars sustained a damaged drink each and Askeaton.

Joseph Bridge deposed that on attended a fur afterwards went and while he wa the accused car drinks each. leaving witness drink taken, b taking charge o The further h Rathkeale Court

---

HAVERGAL

S

---

The A

The Dowager the Annual Baz gal and Roxbor Diocesan Hall, noon.

The Bishop, I ded, and there

Lady Inchiqui Archdeacon Wa object for which held, and said being done in by the large n been successful.

Declaring ope quin said that schools, but full valuable work pupils. She hop be a great suc tial sum would Conveying his for opening the that Limerick other centres f the community charities. He Archdeacon W had done so m so successfully.

The various and the decor attractive. Mr