interesting reading. Other contributors contributors are Rev. M. Creedon C.C., Rev. M. Toher, C.C., and Mr. L. Gavan Duffy. Amongst a host of brightly written articles are—"The Book Barrow,"
"The Grievances of a Legionary," while the President, Mr. John Nagle, writes a special message justifying the new publication.

The first edition of "Maria Legionis" certainly precludes criticism, and no doubt in time will be one of the most popular journals of this kind. The cost is only 3d., and copies may be had from all Praesidia or from De Montford House, North Brunswick Street, Dublin.

LITERARY NOTE.

What is the interest on £80 for 8 months at 4 per cent. per annum?
On what day of the week did June 22nd 1897 fall? Of what proportion is the Litre to the Imperial Gallon?

These and many other everyday problems are readily solved by Brodie's
"Mathematical Desk Companion," a copy of which has been sent us by the publishers

Beautifully printed in clear type and on good paper, it is truly a remarkable publication at the low price of threepence.

It is published by James Brodie, Ltd.,
