

ment is piqued, cause we are the Imperial Con. nentary on states- ss to our people ade and defence. ed April last the ght ten times as Free State as all the world com- e been told that ess and gone for ty who are now office who made ement and have obviously think ople all the time, ist see to it that ome time past all well in the Fianna are symptoms of tuencies, notably the former two the Government t being satisfied ne, while in the ners are not satis- Administration. ghtly, that their glected, and con- a candidate of ignificant, as at tions the farmers divided allegiance Limerick also all overnment, as the ed. They, too, ests have been and window ed the Chairman . J. McCormack cy. It looks at roseate prophecy get a majority disappointment, I hope that will profession and the general public during the time he had been laid up. He trusted that they would always remain sincere and devoted friends.

RIVER DRAGGED

Young Boy Missing

A boy named Noel Iebhera, aged six years, of St. Patrick's Road, Singland, has been missing from his home since Sunday evening last.

A description of the missing child reads as follows:—Brown hair cut short, brown eyes, wearing black velvet shorts, green blouse, and sandals.

The child's movements were traced as far as the Park district, and a pair of sandals similar to those worn by him were picked up in the vicinity of Dr. O'Dwyer Bridge.

This discovery has led to extensive dragging operations in the Abbey River, at this point by the John St. and Mary Street Garda, under the direction of Sergeants Farren and O'Mahony.

BODY RECOVERED.

Dragging operations had been continued throughout the day from boats lent by the Athlunkard Boat Club. Guard White, who was standing on the bank, recovered the body with a grappling hook.

The body was removed in the Corporation Ambulance to the Morgue in Barrington's Hospital.

RECENT WILL.

Mrs. Margaret McCarthy, of Rathkeale, Co. Limerick, who died on October 31st last, left personal estate in England and the Free State valued at £1,277 14s. 1d. Probate has been granted to her brother, Michael Cahill, farmer, of Ballyvocogue, Askeaton, Co. Limerick. She left £50 to her godson, James Cahill, £30 for Masses, and the residue to her brother, Michael Cahill.

Fianna Fai Executive ratified Messrs. E. de Valera, S. O'Grady, T.D., S. Keely, T.D., and T. Shaloo for Clare. The surprise is the dropping of Mr. T. Houlihan, included in the local convention's list.

her was No. 28 Catherine Street was much smaller than her p abode.

His Lordship—I will let this stand, and the legal represent know what I mean. I quite under that Mr. Ryan wants this house for accommodation of his staff, and p is entitled to it in law. I would h disturb this poor woman if I pc could avoid it.

Patrick J. Henn brought an ap tion to fix the standar rent in resp two rooms occupied by him at 1 Harry's Mall, Limerick, from M Hennessy, North Strand, Limerick

Mr. T. K. Lsiton, B.L. (instru Miss C. Tynan, solicitor), appear the applicant, and Mr. D. McD. I ing, B.L.), (instructed by Mr T E C nell, solicitor), for the defendant.

Miss Jane Hayes said that in 191 occupied the two rooms now held b applicant and paid 3s. 9d. per week Other people occupeid the rest c house at various rents.

Mr. Downing said his client w very old lady and was unable to to Court.

Hs Lordship—That being so, I have to find for the applicant, ar the evidence tendered to me I wi the standard rent in proportion t valuation.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

It s stated that the Limerick C Council are not disposed to co-op with the City Council in the purcha a particular site on which it was posed to erect a Courthouse and public buildings suitable to the and requirements of both bodies. learned that the price asked for th in question—stated to be in the r of £2,000 per acre—is regarded a horbtant. The County Council ha is stated, been offered alternative within the city boundary.

FIANNA FAIL ELECTION CAMPA

Mr. Boland, Minister for Lands, s at a Fianna Fail delegate meetin Roscommon that the General Ele campaign will be officially opene June 6.