

CATS.

rick Chronicle."

kindly allow me
ad paper to bring ers to the Society
rueity to Animals

Henry Street, ad-
the past three or y cats have taken ve been fed by a
er persons regu-
k Holiday, when usual to feed the
of boys down in stoning them. On what they were
ere paid to chase
the cats, with its
re in the grounds
rch.

atter has been re-
or the Prevention
but nothing was ts and have them
I wish to impress
e to this Society
se it seems to be k.

IALS' FRIEND."

T SITTINGS

g of the Limerick
sterday, owing to
M. Flood, B.L., Dis-
eputising in Clare
District Justice.

will adjudicate at 3th and 27th, and
irts which will be
ring the present

EEN, T.D.

), who has been in a Tipperary
moved to St. Bri-Dublin, and has,

Capt. Sean Brett was in charge of the firing party.

At Ennis District Court yesterday, Mr. M. J. Walshe, State Solicitor, said they had all learned with deepest regret of the untimely death of Major T. Killeen, brother of Mr. Michael Killeen, Circuit Court Registrar for County Clare. On behalf of the Attorney-General and himself he desired to extend to Mr. Killeen and the other bereaved relatives their sincere sympathy.

District Justice Flood, of Limerick, who is deputising for District Justice Gleeson during the holiday period, said the expression of sympathy, with which he desired to be associated, was very fitting.

DEATH OF MR. THOMAS MacDONAGH.

We announce with regret the death of Mr. Thomas MacDonagh, which took place at his residence, Mount Pleasant Avenue, Limerick, this morning. The deceased, who had reached an advanced age, was a well-known and respected citizen. He was brother of Mr. Michael MacDonagh, the brilliant London journalist and biographer, and Mr. George MacDonagh, News Editor, "Irish Independent," Dublin. Mr. Tom MacDonagh served for a long number of years on the composing staff of the "Limerick Leader" and retired some years ago on superannuation by the Executive of the Typographical Association, on attaining the age limit. A skilled and efficient craftsman, the deceased was a Golden Jubilarian member of the Arch-Confraternity of the Holy Family; quiet and inoffensive, and very popular with his colleagues, and a large circle of friends, who will extend sympathy with his relatives in their bereavement.

The remains will be removed to St. Michael's Church at 8 o'clock to-morrow (Sunday) evening, and the funeral will leave at 3 o'clock on Monday for Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

Plans for a big meat-canning industry at Umtata, capital of Transker district