DEATH OF MR. J. O'DWYER

Passing of Well-known Citizen.

It is with feelings of deep regret that we announce the death of Mr. Jeremiah O'Dwyer, Parnell Street, Limerick, which took place in St. Vincent's Hospital, Dublin, last evening. The deceased had not been in the best of health for some months past, but his death was not expected. For fifty-two years Jerry O'Dwyer, as he was popularly known, was conneced with the Great Southern Railway service, and for thirty-five years of that long period he was Station Inspector at Limerick, having retired on pension 15 months ago. That responsible position he discharged with ability and efficiency, to the satisfaction of the Company and the travelling public. He enjoyed the widest measure of popularity, and was, perhaps, one of the best known officials in the service. Always of a cheerful disposition, he was a most charming companion and a faithful friend.

His passing will be mourned by all who had the pleasure of the acquaintance of a man possessed of fine qualities of head and heart, and the deepest sympathy, in which we share, will be extended to his sons and daughters in their great loss.
