

Incorporated Accountants and winning an honours pass, with y's certificate of merit, Mr. Fitz- is brought another laurel wreath. There were 372 candidates examination. Out of this big ly 167 were successful, which ow that the papers were difficult est severe.

LICK MAN.

Patrick is a Limerick man. A le coincidence is that the stu- se success we reported last Sep- lso comes from that city. It at Limerick still retains its an- tation as a seat of learning. d at Mount St. Joseph's, Ros- FitzPatrick came to Dublin in was articed to Mr. R. J. Kidney, s. R. J. Kidney & Co., College. His articles are not quite com- out he has taken the requisite ons in his stride. Being natu- lest, Mr. FitzPatrick prefers to he credit for his success to his Mr. Kidney, and to the ccllege ntancy, whose correspondence oved such help in his prepara- he examinations.

SMAN.

hard workers, he plays hard. member of Lansdowne Football has played wing-threequarter easons. By a series of unfortu- dents he was crooked at Christ- oth seasons, and thus lost much club work. He is also a member uin Athletic Club, in connection h he runs each summer. phesy a prosperous future for ant student, who, by the way, dy been offered several posts , and we wish him every success iness in the worthy career on has entered. We feel that whe- goes to another country or re- Ireland he will always uphold y and prestige of the Accoun- fession.

ount should have been set off as a contra account to the amount owed him by Mr. Bourke, who, according to witness's books, owed him £108 at the time.

The Justice—I am afraid you have been rather let down in this matter, but I have no option but to give a decree against you for the amount claimed.

FINE GAEL CONVENTION.

Selection of Candidates?

A Fine Gael Convention will be held at the Town Hall on Saturday next at 2.30 p.m. Dr. J. O'Higgins will pre- side, and an important agenda will be gone through.

It is believed that one item of the agenda will be the selection of candi- dates to contest the forthcoming General Election in the Limerick constituency.

DEATH OF CO. LIMERICK DOCTOR.

Very deep regret will be felt at the an- nouncement of the death of Dr. Donough J. O'Keeffe, M.B., B.A.O., B.Ch., which occurred in London on Saturday last. The deceased, who was a son of the late Mr. John and Mrs B. O'Keeffe, Lord Edward Street, Kilmallock, Co. Limerick, was a Graduate of University College, Cork, and was qualified in 1915.

The remains will arrive in Kilmallock on to-morrow (Wednesday), at 10.26 a.m., and the funeral takes place from SS. Peter and Paul's Church to Kilmallock Churchyard at 1 p.m. on Thursday.

MUNSTER SENIOR SCHOOLS' CUP.

Mungret College and Rockwell College meet in the Senior Schools' Cup semi- final at Thomond Park on Thursday next at 3 p.m.