PRETTY WEDDING

Mr. F. Cullen and Miss E Christy

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Methodist Church, Ballingrane, this but such was not the surprising thing was in the ordinary promises made years ago, that more people for that Party. Fiancée to reduce the 21 million by at least two million that they had increased between 33 and 38 million were going to create a in Ireland. They were so many new industries be work for all the were going to increase farmer by £16 a head. Instead, what had had employment had increased 100,000 in five years. At the rate of 50,000 a year to get work in England. employed in the rough pised by English boys, working where no British work. The British Ministry only a few weeks ago girls not to take the girls were leaving Ireland.

ALL RULES OF

Continuing, Mr. Bennett only people to benefit in the Fail Government were supporters. Fianna Fail had rules of all decency which money subscribed by people to a Daily Loan, a subsidised Press; but when they proposed to £500 a year, with a loan to Mr. Donal Buckley, vice to the country was years he shut himself in Laoghaire, and received it. No man in Ireland he was any better off in the Fianna Fail Government.

FAILED TO C

Fine Gael's only fault years ago they failed the promises made by them would not make promise fulfilment. If and when turned to power at the Election, their first step end the insane economic month. They would in tional Reconstruction farmers to restock the
