

s were packed to capacity, the programmes were provided. The weather had the effect of a record crowd to the St. meeting at Greenpark race-ric Guards had a busy time hundreds of motor cars, and for over a mile along dances received more than a throng, which was surprising the fact that, with one exception or no effort was made to bring an unusual for the enjoyment of holiday-makers. The reception of the cinemas, it is estimated that Limerick was visited for by amusement organisations on St. Stephen's Day.

ONLY AT LIMERICK.

Wanderers, 2; Rathbane, 1.

In three games Wanderers gained a victory over Rathbane on St. Stephen's Day. The games were very evenly matched, and alternated between the re-try-fives, where good defence was played. Wanderers led by 15 minutes from the start. K. Moroney reduced the deficit to 10 minutes at Rathbane.

- Misses L. Whelan, D. Murray, M. O'Sullivan, N. Goggin, E. O'Sullivan, N. O'Donoghue, M. Healy, K. Moynihan.
- Misses Carr, M. Moroney, E. McGill, A. Kenny, M. O'Sullivan, A. Naughton, C. Quinn, E. Shanahan.
- Messrs. P. Champion (Limerick), Goggin (Cork).

FRIENDLY GAME.

Wanderers successful in Limerick game.

been entirely cleared, and it is understood that in a short time the parish priest, Very Rev. Canon O'Dwyer, P.P., V.F., intends to erect a suitable organ loft, which up to the present is lacking.

On Sunday next, the Feast of St. Munchin will be celebrated in the church, when his Lordship Most Rev. Dr. Keane will preside at High Mass.

LATE DR. R. H. VEREKER.

An Old Limerick Citizen.

The death took place at his residence, Eastleigh, Curig Rivel, Somerset, on 19th November last, of Dr Richard H Vereker, at the age of 75 years.

The deceased gentleman was a scion of an old Limerick family. His father, the late Mr Henry Vereker, and his grandfather, Dr. Ames Vereker, both having resided in the city.

Dr. Vereker had been practising in England for the past 45 years with considerable success, and was closely identified with public and social life in his locality.

He is survived by his widow, one son, Mr. H. C. Vereker, and two daughters.

Q: "How can I keep free from Influenza?"

and, indeed, the To use such a purposes, as the to do, and as it duce me to do, is tible, and deserve Christian man and The innuendoes and interview are questionably a part of the 'Irish back the Catholic it means damagin land and lowerin men. But then, a only part of a still unscrupulously pl 'Irish Press' is matter for some

"The following public an insig methods employec its campaign of C tation.

"On December Volunteers arrived I was informed t of an officer nam of Dublin. This contingent, gave stand, to Capta known war corri most enthusiastic very disappointed ment, he received requesting him to business. The fol ing Lisbon for S accompanied to th who had met M as leader of the c teers, on the pre very much su James was retur the same boat ar was. I was intr a few minutes' co were aroused by regarding the 'I him a few questi convinced that I truth. I there a of a number of thought, accused told him that I v