

ELECTRIC SEWING MACHINE

sews and wrings curtains,
and blankets with the ease and perfection that leads to the routine house-washing. The average running cost for a normal
old will not exceed 1d.

Cash Price £12

ELECTRIC IRON

Ironing a pleasure by eliminating all the hard work.
Running cost for an average household will not exceed 2d. a week.

Cash Price 13/-

ELECTRIC CARPET CLEANER

Cleaners for
carpets, upholstery,
rugs, picture-rails, odd corners, so easily and thoroughly that your house is spring-cleaned. Its running cost for an average household will be less than
1d. a week.

Cash Price £7.7.0

WILKINSON'S
WROOM'S
EN . . DUBLIN
HES.

HEALTH BOARD.

Medical Appointment

Michael Ryan, Co.C., Chairman, elected at a meeting of the County
Limerick Board of Health.

Other members present were:—
Messrs. M. N. Harnett, Co.C.; Sean
O'Connell, Co.C.; D. J. Madden, Co.C.; J.
Canty, Co.C.; John Quaid, Co.C.;
Quinn, Co.C.

Officials in attendance were:—

knocked down, and it will take £5,000 to repair them.

LIMERICK EXILE'S DEATH.

Funeral in America.

On Sunday, May 16th, the death took place of Thomas C. Ward at the hospital infirmary, Central Islip, New York, after a brief illness. The deceased was employed in the State Hospital for over twelve years, and was attached to the storehouse, and a short time before his death had been promoted to the main office, Steward's Department. Tommy,
as he was known to all his co-workers, was beloved by each and every one of them, and his loss will be keenly felt by all the employees and officials of the State Hospital. He was a great lover of his native country and city, and always looked forward to the time when he would see her a free and independent country, and was always in the limelight where her interests lay. He took great pride in the progress which the country had made since his departure.

He is mourned by his wife, Mrs
Kathleen Ward, and infant daughter,
Kathleen; also by mother, Mrs Catherine Ward, Clare Street, Limerick, and a brother, John, also a sister, Mrs Peter Melia, of Brooklyn, New York, and an uncle, Mr Martin Blake, Central Islip, Long Island.

Funeral services were held at his home
by the Catholic Daughters, Irish-American Organisation, the Holy Name and Catholic Boys' Club. Solemn Requiem Mass was offered on Wednesday, May 19th, at St. John's Church, Central Islip, by the Rev. Joseph A.
McCormack, Pastor.

Interment took place in St. John of God's Cemetery, Central Islip, N. Y.

The many floral pieces and spiritual bouquets were proof of the high esteem in which the deceased was held in the community.

Funeral arrangements were carried out under personal direction of Mr James J.
Moloney, Central Islip, New York, also a native of Limerick.