

Death of Miss M. C. Doyle

We regret to announce the death of Miss Mary Catherine Doyle, who passed away at her residence, Glen Thorn, Kinnis Road, Limerick, on Tuesday.

Deceased was eldest daughter of the late Daniel Doyle and sister of Mr James A. Doyle, solicitor; of the late County Court Judge Doyle, and the late Mr. D. S. Doyle, for many years Assistant Registrar General for Ireland. She was an enthusiastic, energetic and sincere worker in the cause of charity and philanthropy, and seemed never happier than when helping the poor or doing good turns to those in difficulty or distress. For many years she was Secretary of the Limerick District Nursing Association, and at meetings of that body repeated tributes were paid to her by the late Bishop, the Most Rev. Dr. O'Dwyer. Always of a sunny disposition, cheerful temperament, and of deep sincerity and nobility of purpose, she enjoyed, as she deserved, the fullest confidence and highest respect of all who knew her. To her surviving brothers and sisters, as well as to the other relatives, we extend our very deep and sincere sympathy.
