

Death of Mr. John Gleeson

With very sincere regret we announce the death, which took place at his residence, Athinkard street, on Monday last of Mr John Gleeson, who for a number of years was overster in the composing department of Messrs. George McKern & Sons, Ltd. Deceased had not been in the best of health since his retirement some two years ago. A staunch trades unionist, sincere Nationalist, a man of the highest probity, and a delightful companion, he endeared himself to all with whom he came in contact, and his passing has evoked much regret. The funeral to the family burial place at Ballysimon on Wednesday afternoon was very largely attended and was representative of all classes, including his colleagues of the Limerick Typographical Society. The clergy present were:—Very Rev Canon Henson, P.P., St. Mary's; Rev Father M. McCarty, C.C., do; Rev Fr. Costelloe, C.C., do.
