Sudden Death in the City.

Clement Moloney, aged about 36, of 9 Williams Lane, off Gerald Griffin street, a motor driver in the employment of the G.P.O. Limerick, took suddenly ill at his residence on Thursday evening, and was removed to Barrington's Hospital where life was found to be extinct. Deceased leaves a widow and three young children, with whom much sympathy is felt.