

Sad Fatality

Boy's Tragic Death In County Limerick

A boy named John Abern, aged 14 years, was fatally injured while cycling near his home at Ballinacree, a mountainous district some miles from Newcastle West, on Wednesday night, when he collided with a motor car. The boy sustained very severe head injuries.

An inquest he'd at Ardagh by Coroner Robert Curran, Esq., after formal evidence of identification had been given by the boy's father, Supt Kelly, Newcastle West, applied for an adjournment.

The application was granted and the inquest was adjourned for a month.