

Nun's Death in Nenagh

Member of Limerick Family

The death took place on Saturday last in the Convent of Mercy, Nenagh, of Sister Mary Lelia (Carew) in the 49th year of her age and 30th of her religious profession, all of which was nearly spent in the Nenagh Convent.

The late Sister was a daughter of the late Mr James Carew, leather merchant, William street, Limerick, and cousin of the present proprietor, Mr John Carew.

Her remains were interred after Solemn Requiem Mass at the Convent Chapel, in the cemetery in the Convent Grounds on Monday.
