
Death of Mr M J Russell

Well-Known Limerickman Passes Away

We regret to announce the death, which occurred at his residence, Roseneath, Corbally, on Thursday, of Mr Matthew J Russell. Deceased gentleman was only ill for a few days, and the announcement of his death will come as a shock to his numerous friends and acquaintances in the city. He was proprietor of the National Baking Company, Broad street, Limerick, and was a thoughtful and generous employer. Mr Russell took a deep interest in various sporting activities, and on numerous occasions donated trophies for various competitions. He was father of Mr Ted Russell, captain of the Bohemian Club this year, to whom, in common with the rest of the family, deep sympathy will be extended.
