

Tragic Accident

---

Man Fatally Injured In Co. Clare

John Qually, of Ennistymon, Co. Clare, was killed in an accident at Kilsbaany on Monday evening.

Near a fork in the road the deceased was holding on to the back of a cart loaded with turf. The horse, which was being led by a boy, became restive and backed down the hill, tumbling Qually into a drain and crushing him beneath the cart. He died almost immediately.