

Inquest On Limerick Soldier

A verdict of death following laceration and haemorrhage into the brain was returned at an inquest held at Coastume Barracks, Athlone, on Private Thom Murphy who died as a result of a motor cycling accident.

The coroner, Mr J Macken, solr., and the foreman of the jury, expressed sympathy with the relatives, the former saying that pillion-riding should be stopped.
