
Old Gael's Death

Timothy R O'Rourke, of Abbeyfeale, removed one of the last of the members of the old Father Casey Football Club, which was in being before the institution of the G.A.A. He was 72 and took part in the initial championships of the early eighties under the G.A.A. In the Land League days he was treasurer in the fight for land purchase in the West.
