

Clare Man's Death in Spain

Serjt Thomas Troy, Tuohy, county Clare, who was serving with the Irish Brigade in Spain, died from pneumonia last week.

Serjt Troy, he said, was well known in his native county and was very popular with all ranks in the Brigade.

The interment took place in Clarendon with full military honours on the eve of departure of the Irish Brigade for home. The funeral was attended by all distinguished comrades.