

Soldier's Death

---

From Gun Shot Wounds

Private Guiden, attached to the Sarsfield Barracks, who, it was stated, was accidentally shot last Friday morning, and who was lying at Barrington's Hospital, died on Thursday evening without regaining consciousness.

An inquest opened by Deputy Coroner J S McNeice, Esq, was adjourned indefinitely, after evidence of identification by the deceased's father, Thomas Guiden (Dublin) and that of Dr McDonagh, House Surgeon, who stated death was due to hæmorrhage and laceration of the brain.

---