

Limerick P.P. Dead

Well-Known County Pastor Passes Away

The death took place on Thursday night, we much regret to announce, of Rev Fr Patrick Hartigan, P.P. Castlemahon, Newcastle West.

The late Father Hartigan, who was ordained in Maynooth, was about 73 years of age. He was a former curate of Arkton, and also of Castlemahon itself. His first appointment as P.P. was at Tourliffa. Later he succeeded Father Conway in the Pastorship of Castlemahon.

Deceased was a very energetic and zealous priest, and always took a keen interest in the material as well as the spiritual welfare of his flock.

The late Father Hartigan was a brother of Mr John Hartigan, Quilpool, Limerick.
